

Mental Elf 2024

Festive Fun Run

Sunday 1st December
Cannon Hill Park

Volunteer Roles

Thank you for considering to volunteer for Birmingham Mind's Mental Elf Festive Fun Run.

We have various roles available, please see below for a brief discription.

Volunteer Team Leader

- Responsible for all event volunteers, ensuring everyone is clear on their role and has a great day
- Give all volunteers a friendly welcome on arrival and thank them for their time
- Give them their high vis vest and volunteer packs
- Explain overview of the day, their role, timings, arrange communication, answer any queries
- Encourage them to be in the festive spirit and enjoy themselves
- Direct them to the volunteer points
- Make them aware of where they can access refreshments
- Check in regularly with volunteers and advise when they can stand down

Route/event set up/take down

- Carry resources into the park
- Hang decorations and signage in the event area and along the route
- Put up event banners
- Set up gazebos, tables, chairs for registration and first aid areas
- Set up start/finish line area
- Dismantle everything and help carry back out of the park

Team Leader-Registration desk

- Support the Registration desk team, ensuring everyone is clear on their role
- Ensuring each registration point is set up with all documents required
- Give a friendly welcome to our elves as they arrive and ensure the smooth running of the process, keeping crowds to a minimum
- Register on the day sign up's and take payment where needed
- Ensure the team are asking all participants to complete medical and photo consent forms if not done so already
- Ensure all paperwork is filed away in relevant folders and kept safe

Registration desk

- Give a friendly welcome to our elves as they arrive and tick them off your list
- Register on the day sign up's and take payment
- Ask them to complete medical and photo consent forms if not done so already
- Give them their running packs
- Direct them towards start line ready for the warm up at 11:50am

Team Leader-Route Marshalls

- You will be responsible for supporting our route marshall's should they need any support throughout the event
- You will need to brief all marshalls about their responsibilities, give them their packs including your contact number before walking them to their marhsall points
- Ensure each marhsall understands they are to stand at their point on route and remain there until they are advised it is safe to stand down
- Encourage them all to smile, cheer, clap and shout encouragement to our elves as they pass their point. Singing and dancing is very much encouraged!
- Ensure each marshal keeps an eye for any cyclists/runners and ask our elves to slow down to let them pass
- Ensure all marsalls report any accidents/first aid requirements immediately to you
- Liaise with Event Managers to confirm when to stand down marsalls, ensuring they each collect any event signage/decorations and litter from their point

Route Marshals

- Take part in the briefing led by the Team Leader
- Stand at given point on route and remain there until you are advised it is safe to stand down
- Keep an eye out for any debris/obstacles that could cause any issues to our elves as they pass your point and safely move them out of their path
- Smile, cheer, clap and shout encouragement to our elves as they pass your point. Singing and dancing is very much encouraged!
- Keep our elves taking part and the general public safe by ensuring you know where the nearest park exit is and slow down any crowding
- Keep an eye out for any cyclists and ask our elves to stop to let them pass
- Report any accidents/first aid requirements immediately
- Once stood down, collect any event signage/decorations and litter

Finish line crew

- Smile, cheer, clap and shout encouragement to our elves as they pass the finish line. Singing and dancing is very much encouraged!
- Hand out goody bags/medals to all elves and thank them for taking part
- Ensure any litter is collected

To sign up for a volunteer role or for any queries please email fundraising@birminghammind.org

Although it is not a requirement, we would encourage all of our volunteers to join in with the festive spirit and wear fancy dress.
